

FORM 1023 Application for Recognition of Exemption

Part II Activities and Operational Information (ADDENDUM - CONTINUED)

1 Narrative Description of Activities (page 2, line 1)

The following is a list of current or future-planned media projects for which we have agreement with the respective non-profit organizations to engage. Projects are marked as CURRENT or FUTURE. Approximate viewing lengths are included in parentheses. The target media formats are listed as presently known.

Portland Love-In-Action Portland, Oregon (CURRENT)

"Putting Your Love in Action" instructional/promotional video (15 min.); a visual demonstration of how a local community can effectively provide for the needs of the homeless and disenfranchised in an urban setting; FORMAT: VHS and S-VHS video

Foreign Mission Foundation Tigard, Oregon (CURRENT)

"India Development Strategy" electronic presentation and video series (30 min.); a detailed proposal to raise support for the construction of a national linguistic center, seminary, self-supporting public education facility and vocational training school in select needy areas in India; FORMAT: Microsoft Powerpoint presentation, VHS video

Venture International/Navigators Portland, Oregon (FUTURE)

"Central Asian Field Training" video series and interactive CD-ROM (120 min.); provide language, cultural and vocational training for interns and field workers to destinations in Central Asia working among indigenous ethnic groups; FORMAT: VHS video, interactive Windows/Mac CD-ROM software

Issachar Tacoma, Washington (FUTURE)

"Breakthrough Training" video series, interactive CD-ROM and promotional (120 min.); provide methodology and training in proven resource mobilization techniques developed by this organization, giving visual case studies for success and failure; including promotional video and Internet presence for the series; FORMAT: VHS video, interactive Windows/Mac CD-ROM software, Internet Web pages

Wycliffe Bible Translators Milwaukie, Oregon (Northwest Regional Office) (FUTURE)

"The World Over" interactive CD-ROM (120 min.); a multimedia tour of the vast array of career and short-term opportunities found in the world of literacy training and linguistics, aimed at challenging youth in the age range of high school to college to consider personal involvement in world missions; FORMAT: interactive Windows/Mac CD-ROM software